Re: Navigators Management Company a/s/o Nankai Transport v.
Total Terminals International, LLC, et al.
Case No: 07 Civ 5780 (VM)
Our File No.: 68000284

Dear Judge Marrero:

Our office represents plaintiff, Navigators Management Company, in the above referenced matter. In furtherance to Your Honor's July 18, 2007 Order, please be advised that the Summons and Complaint was sent to defendants in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d) on June 19, 2007. To date, defendant Hanjin Shipping is the only defendant to have waived service. Accordingly, it will be necessary for plaintiff to now effectuate formal service on the remaining defendants, Total Terminals and Lansheng Logistics Co., Ltd. With respect to the latter, as this entity is located in China, it will be necessary to serve in accordance with the Hague Convention. As Your Honor is aware, service of entities in China pursuant to the Convention may take as long as 6 months to 1 year.

In addition to the foregoing, we have now learned through preliminary discovery that there is an additional entity, COSCO Shipping, which has not been named. Accordingly, plaintiff intends to amend the complaint to include COSCO who, upon information and belief, issued the ocean bill of lading covering this shipment.

Respectfully yours,
